The Alliance of Women in Workers' Compensation Announces Agenda and Keynote Speakers for California Workers' Compensation & Risk Conference Pre-Conference Event

ATLANTA – September 29, 2016 – The Alliance of Women in Workers' Compensation today announced the agenda and keynote speaker for its leadership event that will be held in conjunction with the California Workers' Compensation (CWC) and Risk Conference in Dana Point, Calif.

On October 4, 2016, the Alliance will host its 2nd annual women's leadership event at CWC featuring keynote speaker Sara Canaday, a leadership and career expert, speaker and author. Canaday's session is titled, You – According to Them: Accelerate your Vision for Success.

During the event, Canaday will use vivid examples to demonstrate the significance of gathering outside perspectives and feedback to more strategically create a powerful vision for the future. Following the keynote, a panelist and participant discussion will further the learning and application of Canaday's keynote concepts.

Last year the session drew more than 150 attendees and had great participation. The 2016 event is expected to have high turnout as well. For more information about the event, including how to register, visit www.allianceofwomen.org/events. There is no cost to attend registration is recommended to make sure your space is reserved.

About The Alliance of Women in Workers' Compensation

The Alliance of Women in Workers' Compensation was formed in 2016 when two women's organizations (Women in Workers' Compensation and the Women Executives in Workers' Compensation) merged to create a single entity. The mission of the Alliance is to effect positive change in the workers' compensation industry through networking, support, mentoring and collaboration. As a 501c3 charitable organization, the organization is funded through corporate donations that allows the organization to create programming on a local and national level for professionals seeking career development, networking and education.
